November 7, 2008

UPCOMING DATES:

- November 11 - School is in session Veteran's Day
- November 19 - Mid-term Reports
- November 27 – 28 - NO SCHOOL

FUNDRAISING NEWS:

I would like to thank Beth Slaven and Natalie Levy for coordinating the magazine and candle fundraisers. The Yankee Candle fundraiser brought in close to $1,500 for the locker fund. Thanks for making this a successful fundraiser.

The Middle School will be hosting a wrapping table for the holidays at Barnes and Noble Bookstore. The store is located at 3748 E. 82nd St., Indianapolis. We will need volunteers to wrap gifts beginning on November 28 – December 23. There will be a meeting on November 11th at 4:00 in the Middle School Room 140. We will discuss the schedule, sign-up for times and explain what we will do. There will not be a charge for wrapping but donations will be accepted.

HOMEWORK NEWS:

Please talk with your child about homework. Homework is very important to the learning process. Teachers encourage the students to write down their assignments in their agenda books, but often they do not write them down. Please communicate with your child if you wish to see their agenda book.

BOOK FAIR:

The Book Fair will be in the Irene Hodock Library next week. Please send money with your child if you would like for them to purchase any books. This is a wonderful opportunity to build your library at home, buy a few gifts, and support the library at the same time. The Book Fair runs Nov. 10 – 14.

The Middle School students watched the Alice in Wonderland play presented by the High School Drama class on Friday. The High School students did a great job!

Hope everyone has a great weekend,
