January 16th, 2009

Upcoming Events:

- ~ January 19th - No School - Martin Luther King Day
- ~ January 20th - Inauguration Day – Wear red, white and blue
- ~ February 6th - Half Day of School

INAUGURATION DAY:

Our students will be able to watch history in the making on Tuesday, January 20th. ISD will watch this historical event on the live via the computer. We are asking all of our staff and students wear red, white and blue on Tuesday. Let's show our support for America.

SNOW DAYS/2 HOUR DELAY:

ISD will follow the local schools regarding 2 hour delays and school closings. If your school is on a two hour delay or closes, your child will be excused from school. Safety is our utmost concern for all of our students. With the extreme cold temperatures, please make sure your child wears a coat to school.

COMMUNICATION:

Remember to contact your child's Teacher of Record if you have any questions or concerns. They will be able to assist you or pass your concern on to the correct person. Communication between home and school is very important. Email is a great way to stay in contact with all of the teachers.

HANDS-ALIVE:

Hands Alive will be back at ISD in March. Hands Alive is a "talent" show for our students. Students can showcase their talents. If your child would like to participate in the talent show, he/she will need to ask for a sponsor. A sponsor will assist your child in creating their performance. A sponsor can be a teacher, residential advisor, any ISD staff member, parent, or person who impacts your child's life. More information will be coming home soon.

STAY WARM AND HAVE A GREAT WEEKEND!
